ADDITIONAL COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Dr. Bellinger has received as a present from a western friend a beautiful fawn. W. H. Dudley, the well known stock man, yesterday sold and delivered a herd of fat cattle to Schultz, the Omaha butcher. City Weighmaster Amy complains that hay, oats and corn are not coming in fast enough to supply the demand. The farmers are too busy to think of town folks. A C. Graham yesterday received 100 Scotch pine trees, a donation from Horace Everett, who desires the park com-missioners to have them planted in Fair-

A meeting was called for last night of property owners interested in getting a hotel located on the Keller property. It is believed that $20,000 bonus can be easily raised to secure that site.

Frank Chase, the Northwestern em ploye who had such a miraculous escape from death, is now preparing to occupy a new house of his own near the depot, and his friends hope that he will live to be happy in it many years. The free public library continues to do an increasing business. Last month there were 1,924 booktakers, and 3,750 visitors. There 2,443 books taken out, and as usual fiction was in demand, there being 1,465 volumes taken, and only forty-two on philosophy.

The Globe speaks of Wade Carr's livery stable. Being within a half block of the stable referred to, and Bray having kept a livery stable here for twenty years, it seems that it was nearly time that even that evening paper got onto the fact of its being Bray's stable. One enthusiastic prophet declares that the new Union Pacific bridge will do more for Council Bluffs than is generally thought. With cable cars running over the bridge, and the other facilities for crossing, and with the opening of the Ninth street line of street cars, he predicts that 10,000 people will be added to this side of the river. Mrs. Lizzie DeKay, a sister of George and Tony Gerspacher, died yesterday morning at Minneapolis. The remains will arrive here this morning, and will be buried Friday morning at 1 o'clock from the Catholic church. Mrs. DeKay would have been thirty two years old to-day. Before her marriage to Mr. DeKay she was married to Henry Leader, whose widow she became. Personal Paragraphs
